

1. WHAT DO I NEED TO APPLY FOR PROGRAMS OF THE MINISTRY OF HOUSING AND URBAN DEVELOPMENT?

Until 2015, foreigners had to wait five years after obtaining their certificate to apply for Permanent Residency programs of the Ministry of Housing and Urban Development (MINVU). In November 2015, this requirement was removed. Therefore, at present migrant families can apply for existing programs as soon as they get the certificate for permanent residence.

2. WHAT ARE THE EXISTING PROGRAMS TO THOSE WHO CAN APPLY?

Existing programs in the Ministry of Housing and Urban Development are:

- Buy a house.
- Build a house.
- Arrendar property.
- Improve housing and neighborhood. rural -program.

Know the requirements and forms to apply for programs MINVU on the website <http://beneficios.minvu.gob.cl/>

3. How OVERSEAS, CAN I GET SUPPORT FOR rent housing?

MINVU exists in the Lease Schedule a property, aimed at vulnerable and middle class families who need a housing solution for a certain time, and are able to make a monthly payment to pay rent.

To apply for this program, migrants must present their identity card for foreign force. They do not require permanent residence certificate.

This program gives families a unique and total subsidy of 170 UF maximum. It can be used monthly, consecutively or fragmented, within a maximum term of up to eight years. Thus, those who obtain this benefit will only pay a portion of the value of their lease each month.

This benefit housing support changing any region of the country, and allows you to choose in the future to a program for the purchase of a home.

You can apply for this benefit in person at regional offices or through the site SERVIU www.minvu.cl

